

Principal's Desk

Big Apple Academy

Today's Science lesson at the Big Apple Academy wasn't the usual discussion about fruits. Instead, students delved into an exploration of the unique characteristics of plants, conducting simple observations and investigations. They engaged in comparing and classifying plants based on shape, texture, size, and color. More importantly, students had the opportunity to prepare and taste their own fruit salads!

Principal's Desk

Big Apple Academy

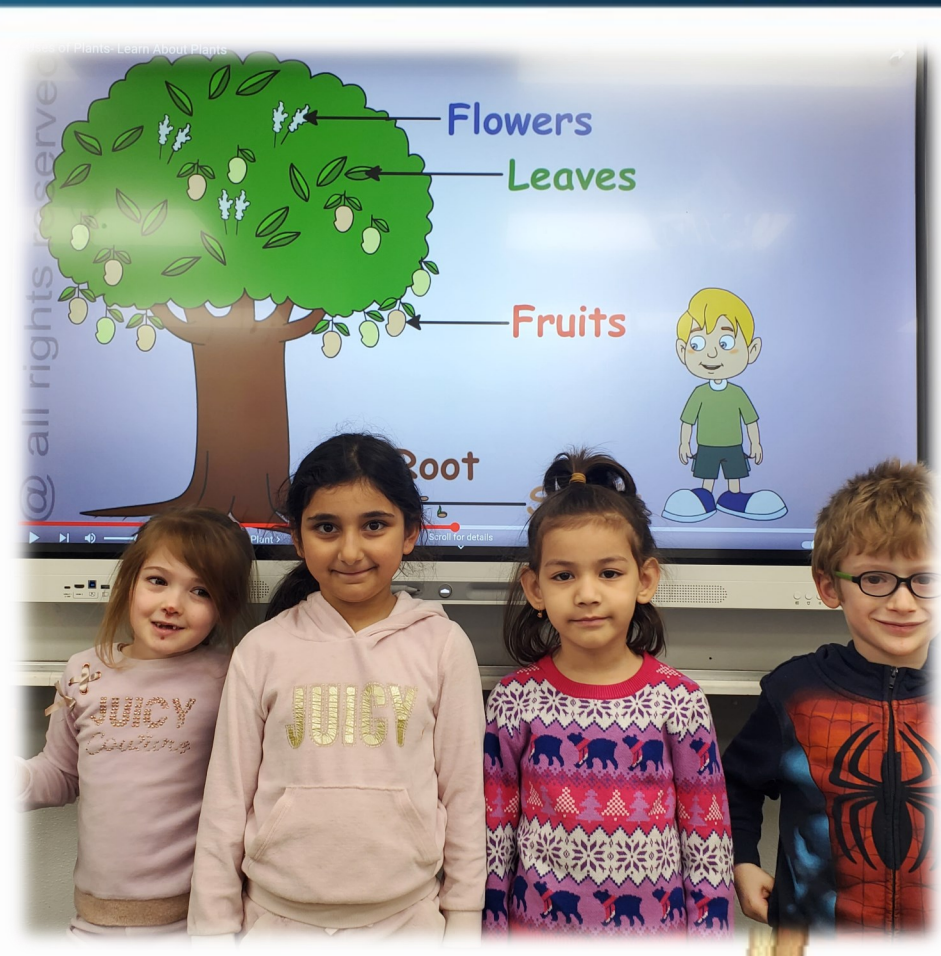

Unique Science Lesson with the Fruit Salad !

Principal's Desk

Big Apple Academy

In the World of Science...

Principal's Desk

Big Apple Academy

Thank you, Mrs. Olga and Mrs. Yulia
This Lesson is So Delicious !